

The Bill Calculator is intended for providers of service to customers. The application allows for users to enter a total amount, apply a tip, and split it among a number of people.

Components of the Application:

- EditText views for user input for bill total and number of people paying
- RadioButton for selecting the tip amount
- TextViews for calculation displays
- Clear Button for additional inputs