

News Aggregator App allows users to access tons of news articles across many platforms, all in one place! Users can specify their news focus topic, select their news platform, and swipe through the last 10 articles made by the news source.

Components of the Application:

- Application connected to the following API to get news sources:
 - “https://newsapi.org/v2/sources”
- Three dot icon on the top right corner that opens available news topics
- RecyclerView of array of news sources include all platforms that match the selected the topic
 - News sources open when hamburger icon is tapped or when the screen dragged left to right
- NavigationDrawer Comprised of an array of articles appear when news source is selected
- Application redirects user to full article description when user taps headline